Cultural Competency

Training: As a small private psychotherapy practice (no staff beyond ourselves) we each take responsibility for our own professional development and continuing education, and these would be the vehicles of ongoing training for each of us. Issues related to cultural congruence are particular topics of conversation among us during regular clinical consultation.

Cultural Capabilities/

Specialties: All clinicians have training and ongoing

goals related to continued growth and awareness in the realm of cultural congruence.

Cultural Competency

Training: Our Therapists regularly use a portion of their CEU's each year to maintain and improve their Cultural Congruence.

Cultural Capabilities/Specialities: Cultural safety and cultural competence is practiced by our mental health providers to better understand members' background, values and beliefs to meet their social, cultural and community needs.

Languages:

Languages at office: We currently only have the capacity to offer services in English but have engaged translators for non-english speaking clients and transcribers for the hearing impaired.
